Sergeant Lenny Carr Retires From the Sheriff's Office

(Paulding County, GA) On Friday March 12, 2021 Sergeant Lenny Carr retired from the Paulding County Sheriff's Office. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic an official retirement celebration was unable to be held, but the Deputies and civilian staff of the Paulding County Sheriff's Office were able to send him away with well wishes from afar.

Sergeant Carr began his career with the Paulding County Sheriff's Office on January 20, 2005 as a Detention Officer. During his over 16 year career he served under two different sheriffs. Throughout his career he served in the Jail Division, Uniform Patrol Division, and the Juvenile Division. After coming to law enforcement after a career in the corporate world, Sergeant Carr progressed through the ranks to become the Sergeant in the Crimes Against Children Unit within our Juvenile Division. Eventually, Sergeant Carr would oversee the Sex Offender Registry for Paulding County.

During his career, Sergeant Carr had a brief stint as an Investigator with the Paulding County Judicial Circuit District Attorney's Office as well as the Paulding County Marshal's Bureau. Sergeant Carr's passion has and probably always will be, fighting for children who have been victimized. Some of Sergeant Carr's accomplishments are listed below:

- Internet Crimes Against Children with GBI
- Charter Member, Vice President, and Treasurer of Paulding Public Safety Appreciation, Inc.

I wish we could have sent him off with a huge party, but due to the COVID-19 pandemic we were unable to. Once everything gets back to normal, we will host an official retirement ceremony for him along with several others at a later date. I hope he enjoys time with his family and gets to relax as much as he wants."
