Susan Harris Retires From the Sheriff's Office

(Paulding County, GA) On Tuesday June 1, 2021 Susan Harris retired from the Paulding County Sheriff's Office. Mrs. Harris began her career at the Paulding County Sheriff's Office on January 4, 1993 as an Administrative Secretary. During her over 28 year career she served under two different sheriffs.

Mrs. Harris began her career as the Administrative Secretary for the late Sheriff Bruce Harris. She served in that capacity until he retired on December 31, 2008. When Sheriff Gary Gulledge took office on January 1, 2009, Mrs. Harris transferred to the Courthouse Security Division where she became their Administrative Secretary. Sheriff Gary Gulledge stated, "Susan was a great employee and was always so much fun to be around. She was the wife of the late Sheriff Bruce Harris and was one of the keys to his success. I hope she enjoys time with her family and gets to relax as much as she wants."

Mrs. Harris' career at the Sheriff's Office spanned over 28 years. During her tenure as an Administrative Secretary at the Sheriff's Office, she has seen many changes. We want to wish Susan a happy and relaxing retirement. Now she will have plenty of time to enjoy life and spend time with her family.
